

Poisson geometry and bihermitian geometry

Nigel Hitchin

University of Oxford, UK

Bihermitian geometry -- the interaction of two different complex structures with a single Riemannian metric -- generates questions in holomorphic Poisson geometry. The talk will focus on what at first sight seems a purely holomorphic issue concerning deformations of holomorphic Poisson manifolds, and then show how it contributes to the study of bihermitian geometry.