

Reconstruction on Trees

Nayantara Bhatnagar

University of California

I will speak about the reconstruction problem on trees for statistical physics models such as colorings and independent sets. The reconstruction problem is closely related to Gibbs measures on trees, mixing of Glauber dynamics and constraint satisfaction problems in random graphs.