

Random walks on a percolation cluster: recurrence, speed and collisions

Dayue Chen

Peking University

Consider the Bernoulli bond percolation on a graph G and suppose there is an infinite cluster C . We would like to compare C with G by running a random walk on C , hoping that G and C share many properties. We shall examine recurrence and speed of a random walk, and collisions of two independent random walks.