Linearly reinforced random walks.

Omer Angel
University of British Columbia

We prove that the linearly reinforced random walk on a bounded degree graph with sufficiently small initial weights is recurrent. On non-amenable graphs we also establish transience for sufficiently large initial weights. The vertex reinforced jump process is also treated.

Join with Nicholas Crawford and Gady Kozma.