

Graded matrix factorizations and complete intersections

Jesse Burke

University of California

I will discuss how two theorems of Orlov combine to show that the bounded derived category of a complete intersection ring can be described as the homotopy category of graded matrix factorizations of the "universal hypersurface" of the complete intersection. I will also talk about applications and consequences of this description.