

Grothendieck duality and complete intersections

Greg Stevenson
Universität Bielefeld

Given a ring with a dualising complex it is natural to seek to understand which thick subcategories of the bounded derived category (or singularity category) are stable under Grothendieck duality. We will discuss the answer to this question for complete intersections: in this case every thick subcategory is self-dual.