

Some geometry and combinatorics around the representations of Cherednik algebras

Iain Gordon

University of Edinburgh

The representation theory of Cherednik algebras has connections with parts of geometry and combinatorics. Topics include resolving symplectic singularities, realization of phase spaces of some classical integrable systems, positivity for symmetric functions and the numerology of reflection groups. I will discuss a couple of these. No prior knowledge will be assumed.