

Introduction to Noncommutative Algebraic Geometry

Paul Smith

University of Washington

We focus on non-commutative analogues of various projective algebraic surfaces and 3-folds to introduce some of the basic ideas and results in non-commutative projective algebraic geometry. We emphasize similarities with and differences from the classical, i.e., commutative, case.